

Stations of the Cross

Woodcut Images by Margaret Adams Parker

Permission for One-Time Use

Permission for one-time use of the Stations of the Cross woodcut images, copyright Margaret Adams Parker:

- Reproduction of Woodcut Images for Projection $150

Permission to project the complete set and to print in hard copy one image (for a bulletin, program cover, or poster). The Stations reproductions will be available in PowerPoint format; permission is given to download one image from the PowerPoint to reproduce in hard copy for publicity purposes. Hard copy must include this attribution:

Stations of the Cross, woodcut prints by Margaret Adams Parker, are reproduced in Praying the Stations of the Cross – Finding Hope in a Weary Land, Parker & Sonderegger, Eerdmans 2019. Parker's copyright of these images is registered with the United States Copyright Office. Please contact the artist for permission to use these images: info@margaretadamsparker.com.

- Reproduction of Woodcut Images for Hard Copy $350

Permission to print up to 500 copies of the complete set of Stations from a PDF file, sized for a double-fold booklet, 8.5" x 5.5". The Stations reproductions will be available as a PDF file for printing.

Fees for one-time use may subsequently be applied in full to the purchase of reproductions. Financial underwriting is available in cases where the fee for one-time use is a financial hardship.

Terms of Use

- Reproduction of woodcut images, for both projection and hardcopy use, is permitted for study and worship, by study and worship participants, and is not granted for wider distribution.
- Images may be cropped up to 10% for projection or printing, but no other alternations are permitted.

Directions for Ordering

Email info@margaretadamsparker.com for your invoice. Upon receipt of your payment (through PayPal) you will receive either the PowerPoint or PDF files by return email.